IN MEMORIUM

Hamilton 5 Pin Bowlers' Association have lost two of its' finest volunteers

FRED SMITH

Suddenly at his home on October 23rd in his 90th year, Fred passed away. Fred was a retiree from the Brewer's Retail, Draft Equipment Services and his passion was his family and 5 Pin Bowling.

Fred was very active with the Hamilton 5 Pin Bowlers' Association. Fred was elected Vice-President of the Hamilton 5 Pin Association in 1968 and advanced to the Presidency a year later – a position he held until 1974. After stepping down from the Presidency, Fred remained with the Association in a variety of roles, serving as Chief Councilor and Public Relations chairs. He subsequently became the Booster Club chair and sold a one hundred kit each year for 12 years and earned provincial honours in 1991. When the Hamilton Association began to promote Kids-Help-Phone, Fred was part of the committee that now raises nearly $30,000 each year.

Fred was inducted into the Builder's Division of the O5PBA in the year 2000.

EVELYN WOOD "Little Miss Bowling"

After a courageous battle with Parkinson's disease, Evelyn went to be with her lord on November 1st at the age of 84.

"Little Miss Bowling" had been the mainstay and foundation of the O5PBA since she joined the board in 1969. By 1978, she had won 10 Incentive Awards and it was later ruled that Board Members of the O5PBA could not win any future awards.

Evelyn was the first "Executive of the Decade" winner in 1977. Evelyn also has 5 Master Bowlers tournament wins to her credit. In 1976, 1977 and 1978 she was a member of the Hamilton Ladies team that won titles both Provincially and Nationally.

Evelyn was a lifetime volunteer with bowling, the Cancer Society and Visiting Homemakers of Hamilton.

Evelyn was a dual inductee into the O5PBA Hall of Fame as a Builder in 1987 and as a Player in 1994. She is only the third selected for dual induction behind Bert Garside and Mabel MacDowell.
